

The Joys of Tee Pees

You know that excited feeling when you're in on a secret for someone else? Try 3 someones. My kids had no idea when they came home from school this Friday that an amazing tee pee would be waiting for them! I've been holding in my excitement all week. They guessed what was inside the box and had a few ideas, but none this cool!

ery mom's dream. A great new imagination tool that is easy to set up and take down. I can fit this right in my closet when we're done and bring it back out for a rainy day! Total honesty here, I laughed out loud in complete joy when I read the tag that all cloth parts are machine washable. That's the kind of mom I am. If it can be washed normally, I get the feels.

Check out the little window with roll-up panels. Sooo cute! I've been wanting a little space in our house for reading and creative play. This tee pee came with a soft mat and 4 pillows to go inside. Right away my kids had to rearrange the little pillows and make themselves a "nest".

So far the tee pee has been a book nook, camping tent, puppy house, snuggle bungalow, Peter Pan's secret lair, and probably more I haven't witnessed.
